

Foreign Exchange Trading Agreement Between Mercantile Bank Limited, Registration 1965/006706/06 ("the Bank") and the person/entity opening or on whose behalf a Foreign Exchange Trading account is/has been opened at the Bank ("the Client")

The Bank and the Client wish to enter into transactions in respect of the purchase and sale of Foreign Exchange, subject to the following terms and conditions.

1 TRANSACTIONS

- 1.1 Foreign Exchange can be bought and sold for delivery, either through:
 - 1.1.1 A Spot Foreign Exchange Transaction whereby delivery of foreign currency is made within two business days hence.
 - 1.1.2 A Forward Exchange Contract whereby foreign currency is delivered at an agreed future date and specified rate.
- 1.2 The Client will be entitled, on the terms and conditions recorded herein, to enter into Spot Foreign Exchange Transactions and/or Forward Exchange Contracts (hereinafter referred to as the "transaction") with the Bank as counterparty.
- 1.3 The term of any Forward Exchange Contract shall be limited to 180 days. The term may be extended to 360 days in which event the margin required by the Bank will increase to a level to be determined by the Bank in its sole discretion.
- 1.4 The limits approved by the Bank for (a) transaction(s) shall be advised by the Bank to the Client in a separate letter. The terms and conditions of the said letter shall be deemed to be incorporated in this agreement and shall be construed as one agreement regulating the relationship between the parties.
- 1.5 The Bank shall be entitled, at any time, to impose restrictions or review any limit in respect of any single transaction.
- 1.6 Customer Foreign Currency Accounts ("CFC Accounts") may be opened if the Client is a South African entity, who provides a service from the Republic, to non-residents and who receives payment in foreign currency in the Republic and only foreign exchange transactions concluded in the name of the Client and which qualifies as a permissible debit and/or credit, may be passed over CFC Accounts. CFC Accounts opened for Trusts require prior Exchange Control approval.
- 1.7 Foreign currency purchased in the spot market or the maturity proceeds of hedging contracts may only be credited to a CFC Account if the funds are to be transferred abroad by no later than 30 days from date of crediting the account.

2 EXCHANGE CONTROL

- 2.1 In the absence of an Imports/Exports Undertaking, the Client confirms that each and every transaction is in respect of a firm underlying foreign currency commitment or a firm and ascertainable foreign currency receivable (as defined in the Exchange Control Regulations and Rulings) and that no other foreign exchange agreement has been entered into in respect thereof.
- 2.2 The Client agrees and undertakes to comply with Exchange Control Rulings and Regulations as determined by the Exchange Control Department of the South African Reserve Bank from time to time and to complete all necessary documentation required in compliance of the rulings and regulations.

3 PAYMENT

- 3.1 In respect of all transactions the Client shall furnish the Bank with the cash value of its payment obligation under the transaction by no later than two business days prior to the maturity date. The Bank will then meet its obligations under the transaction.
- 3.2 Payments to the Bank shall only be deemed to have occurred once the funds have been credited and have been cleared for payment.
- 3.3 The Client agrees and authorises the Bank to debit any of its accounts held at the Bank with the cash value of a transaction executed from time to time.

- 3.4 The Bank shall only be obliged to return any funds held by Bank on the Client's behalf subject to the fulfilment of the condition that the Client has fulfilled all its settlement obligations to the Bank in respect of transactions traded between the parties from time to time.

4 DEFAULT AND MARGINING REQUIREMENTS

- 4.1 The Client shall be deemed to be in default of its obligations in terms of this agreement if the Client fails to fulfil any of its respective obligations in terms of any transactions or any rule and/or regulation relating thereto.
- 4.2 In the event of a default by the Client, the Bank shall be entitled, without notice to the Client, to :
 - 4.2.1 close out any positions of the Client; and
 - 4.2.2 exercise a right of retention over any or all of the assets of the Client in the Bank's possession, which assets shall be deemed to have been pledged to the Bank, who may exercise any legal rights it has pursuant to the pledge.
- 4.3 The Client shall;
 - 4.3.1 on demand, provide such minimum initial margin as the Bank, in its sole discretion, may require, in order to cover any exposure that the Bank may have arising from fluctuations in currency exchange rates or if a transaction exceeds the approved limits or whatever other reason with respect to any transaction/s contemplated herein ("initial margin");
 - 4.3.2 top up the initial margin in order to fund any variation in such margin account as required by the Bank from time to time ("variation margin"). Funds in the margin account must at all times remain at least at the level of the initial margin or topped up to this level on demand;
 - 4.3.3 the Bank may, entirely at its sole discretion, determine both the amounts of the initial margin and the variation margin as and when it may be required from the Client in respect of each transaction from time to time.
- 4.4 The Client hereby agrees that, in the event of the Client failing and/or refusing to make payment of any variation margin top up called for by the Bank, then the Bank shall be entitled, without further notice, to terminate any transaction in respect of which the variation margin top up has been called for and not timeously provided ("close out") and apply the initial and variation margin towards settlement of any amount due to the Bank or any other party.

5. RIGHTS OVER TRANSACTIONS

- 5.1 The Bank reserves the right, at the Client's cost and expense, to process transactions and to cancel, close or hedge any outstanding transactions or positions without prior notice to the Client at whatever price and in whatever manner the Bank deems fit if;
 - 5.1.1 the Client has failed for any reason to settle a transaction or is otherwise in breach of this agreement; or
 - 5.1.2 the Bank otherwise becomes entitled to terminate this agreement forthwith without notice; or
 - 5.1.3 the Bank considers, in its sole discretion, that such action is reasonably necessary to protect its interests.
- 5.2 Any proceeds arising from any of the actions referred to above will be applied to reduce or discharge the liabilities or indebtedness of the Client to the Bank. The Client shall remain liable to the Bank for any outstanding balance after the proceeds have been applied.
- 5.3 The Client will be liable to the Bank for all liabilities, damages, losses, costs, claims and expenses incurred by the Bank in respect of any such action taken.
- 5.4 As continuing covering security for the due and punctual payment of every sum of money which may now or hereafter become owing by the Client to the Bank from whatsoever cause arising and for the performance of every obligation, howsoever arising which the Client now or in future become, bound to perform in favour of the Bank, the Client hereby pledge, cede and make over to the Bank the right title and interest in and to all funds and deposits held by the Bank on behalf of the Client.

6. CHARGES AND INTEREST

6.1 The Bank will impose fees and charges for services rendered and will be entitled to debit such fees and charges to the Client's account together any commissions, ledger fees, stamps, legal costs and other costs incidental to any transaction or arising from this agreement. All charges will be subject to Value Added Tax, if applicable. The Bank in its sole discretion may vary such fees and charges, by written notice to the Client.

6.2 The Bank may, at its discretion charge the Client interest at the prevailing prime overdraft rate charged by the Bank from time to time plus 5% (five percent), on any amounts not settled by the Client on the due date. The Bank shall be entitled, in its sole discretion, to impose a penalty interest at the maximum rate allowed by Law should any amounts due by the Client not be settled within 3 days from the due date.

6.3 Unless specifically agreed the Client will not be entitled to receive interest in respect of any amounts held by or due from the Bank unless the money is held in accordance with the Client's instructions in an interest bearing account with the Bank. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or any other document or agreement between the parties, the parties specifically agree that interest payable in respect of any account shall immediately cease to accrue to or be payable in respect of the account if the funds available in the account or any portion thereof are forfeited to the state or attached for any reason whatsoever or if the account is blocked or attached by the South African Reserve Bank, any other regulator, any law enforcement agency or in terms of an order of court, and the Bank shall then be entitled in its sole discretion, to close the account.

7. TERMINATION

7.1 This agreement may be terminated by either party, by giving 7 (seven) days written notice to that effect

7.2 This agreement may be terminated forthwith by the Bank; if the Client is unable to pay its debts or enters into any scheme or compromise with its creditors or is placed under judicial management, curatorship or receivership or action is taken for the winding up of the Client or to place the Client under business rescue (including the passing of a resolution) or any action is taken by a creditor against the Client to collect any indebtedness due by the Client; or if, in the case of a company or other juristic person, the Client is deregistered or applies to be deregistered; or if the Client, in the opinion of the Bank, commits a material breach of its obligations arising under this agreement or the applicable legislation.

7.2.2 The termination of this agreement shall not affect any liability of the Client, under this agreement, which arose prior to such termination and shall not prejudice any rights the Bank may have pursuant to this agreement.

7.2.3 Should it be necessary for the Bank to institute legal action to enforce its rights, the Client shall be liable for legal costs on attorney and own client scale which costs shall be payable on demand.

8. LIABILITY

8.1 The Bank shall not be liable to the Client or any of its clients in respect of any action or omission by the Bank arising wholly or partly as a result of an event or state of affairs which was reasonably beyond its power to prevent and the effect of which was beyond its power to avoid (including, without limitation, failure of transmission, communication facilities and error or default of the Client, any exchange, market or clearing house).

8.2 Neither the Bank nor its employees, servants, representatives or agents shall be liable for any loss, liability or expense suffered or incurred by the Client arising directly or indirectly out of or in connection with any transaction, instruction or investment unless such loss, liability or expense arises from gross negligence or fraud by the Bank.

9. GENERAL

9.1 The Client agrees that:

- 9.1.1 the ISDA 2002 Master Agreement ("ISDA"); and
- 9.1.2 the Bank's standard Schedule to ISDA referred to in 9.3 below ("the Schedule"), are incorporated into and form a material part of this Agreement, subject to the following provisions

(a) notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in ISDA, section 6(b)(ii)(iii) &(iv), but only in so far as it relates to an illegality and section 10(a) of the ISDA shall not apply in respect of the transactions contemplated herein.

(b) the Client agrees that any amount due by it to the Bank will be reduced, at the election of the Bank, by its set off against any amount/s payable by the Bank to the Client (irrespective of the currency, place of payment, or booking office of the obligation) under any other agreements, instruments or undertakings issued or executed between the Bank and the Client relating to any transaction contemplated herein. The Bank will give notice to the Client of any set-off elected in terms hereof.

9.2 The Client by indicating its acceptance of these terms and conditions declares that it is fully acquainted with the meanings and effects of the standard printed terms of the ISDA as well as the terms of the Schedule and expressly agrees that the standard printed terms of the ISDA in conjunction with the terms of the Schedule, shall apply to each and every transaction effected in terms of this agreement.

9.3 The Schedule shall contain such terms and conditions as determined by the Bank from time to time. The Bank shall provide the Client with a copy of the Schedule on request.

9.4 The parties hereby agree that the following shall be applicable in respect of the Schedule:

9.4.1 The date of the Schedule at the top of page 1 thereof shall be the same date as the date this agreement came into effect;

9.4.2 The Bank shall be Party A and the Client shall be Party B for the purpose of the Schedule;

9.5 The Client hereby consents and authorises the Bank to disclose any personal information relating to the Client to any other company affiliated to the Bank or in an event of the Client breaching the terms and conditions of this agreement, to any credit bureau or other person and the Client hereby waives any claims which it may have or obtain against the Bank and indemnifies and hold the Bank harmless against any claim, loss, damage, costs or expense, as a result of the Bank disclosing such information.

9.6 The Client acknowledges that the Bank has policies regarding dormant accounts and which provides for accounts to be closed should the account be inactive for a pre-determined period as stipulated in these policies.

10. DOCUMENTATION

The Client undertakes to ensure that all documents required for a transaction are correct and comply with Exchange Control Rulings and Regulations. and to promptly sign and return such documents to the Bank in respect to each transaction entered into.

11. CERTIFICATE

Any amount owing in terms of this agreement and the fact that such amount is due and owing may be proved by a certificate signed by a manager of the Bank whose appointment and authority need not be proved. Such certificate shall be sufficient ("prima facie") proof of the facts stated therein.

12. ALTERATIONS

The Bank may amend this agreement by giving the Client reasonable notice of such amendment. Should the Client fail to lodge a written objection to the proposed amendment with the Bank within 5 (five) days of the date of the Bank's notice of amendment, the amendment shall be deemed to be accepted with effect from the date of the Bank's notice of amendment. The Client may not amend this agreement without the prior written consent of the Bank.

13 RECORDINGS

The Client consents to the recording of telephone conversations between the Bank and the Client, and that the information contained in the recordings may be used by the Bank as evidence in the event of a dispute. Any such recordings and the information contained therein shall be the sole property of the Bank. Notwithstanding the aforesaid the Bank shall not be obliged to keep or store such recordings or copies thereof for the benefit of the Client.

14. FACSIMILE/ELECTRONIC MAIL/TELEPHONIC/ELECTRONIC INSTRUCTIONS
